LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90024

April 20, 2020

Re:

Dear

This office represents regarding the repossession of , and account with you. Please direct all correspondence concerning to this office, except as set forth below. If you do send any written correspondence to me, please send it by fax since my physical office is not open during the pandemic. Alternatively, you may email me at

You repossessed vehicle on April 16, 2020, in violation of the statewide stay-at-home order and related orders by the County department of public health. In addition, your repossession men breached the peace during the repossession by ignoring , lifting up inside the vehicle, and threatening to call the police and have arrested.

wishes to reinstate or redeem contract. is entitled to a notice of sale pursuant to Financial Code § 22328(b), which informs of right to reinstate/redeem, and the steps required to do each. has not received a notice of sale.

. Please send the notice of sale directly to (not to me), at new address on Nadeau Street. If you have already sent out a notice of sale to old address, please send a new one to updated address.

Thank you for your cooperation regarding the above.

Sincerely,